Imagine this...

What could happen if gifted children and teenagers from all across Europe met in Brussels?

They are gifted.

Young people who ask difficult questions.

Who think differently.

Who feel deeply.

Who often struggle to find peers who truly understand them.

Wondering Gifted Minds

– Workshop in Brussels

An international workshop promoted by Carano4Children Foundation within the Leonardo4Children programme.

On 9 October 2026, 30 gifted children and teenagers aged 8–18 from across Europe will meet in Brussels for a unique experience.

They will collaborate in the Blueland 2100 workshop, imagining solutions for the future.

In the evening, they will join the Leonardo4Children Awards Ceremony, an international event celebrating talent and positive impact.

On stage, each participant will receive their participation certificate.

A day to share ideas, build connections and be part of Europe's future.
